1. The new year will be beginning in a couple of weeks and that means Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread will be upon us. We will be getting together on the first and last day of the feast (they are Sabbaths) from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM so if you desire to fellowship those two Sabbaths, we look forward to it.
2. Next meeting starts at 12:00 noon at Mechanicsville and not 3:00 PM like usual.
3. Our Meeting April 16th will be back in Mechanicsville but at a different time.
4. Our study on the first Sabbath will focus on a request from Costa Rica concerning weekly Sabbaths and what are some do(s) and don't(s). I'll be providing a list to discuss.

What Yeshua said about his Purpose

Matthew 5:17 Do not suppose that I have any intention of doing away with the Torah or the Prophets. My purpose is rather to place them on a firmer footing by interpreting them correctly in terms of God's ultimate will as He originally intended for His commandments to be obeyed.

The Law of God, also known as the Torah, emanates from the abiding goodness of God's nature and thus stands forever, God being unchangeable. When we observe the Torah, it is a reflection of His Divine Nature resident within us.

Today's Torah Portion Leviticus 12:1 — 13:59

1. Leviticus 12: 6-8

When a woman bore a male child, after the 40 days had ended, a burnt offering and a sin offering were offered by the priest to make an atonement for her (v7) before she was declared clean from her flow of blood. In Luke 2:22-24, the mother of Yeshua followed this commandment. If a sin offering was made, does this mean that during the 40 days, sin had been committed?

2. Leviticus 13:47-59 Garment Issues

If the skin diseases that afflicted humans were a parable of the effect of sin in human beings, discuss the role of mildew (and the like) in clothing and leather goods as a picture of the working of sin in the material creation per Genesis 3:17-19

3. It can be said that Holiness in Leviticus is symbolized by wholeness. How should we relate to the Holiness code in today's world as a Torah Pursuant People with no temple?

Peer Review: Fulfilling Scripture

1 Thessalonians 5:21 Test everything! Grasp a hold of that which is determined to be true.

Proverb 18:17 The first to present his case seems right, until another comes forward and examines him.

Peer Review is a process that journals and white papers use to ensure the information that is published represents the best scholarship currently available.

What should happen is that when a journal or white paper is ready to be published, the editors should send it out to other scholars to get their opinion on the quality of the scholarship, its relevance to the field, its appropriateness for publication, an evaluation of its sources, etc. Unfortunately, for the Hebrew Roots world, this seldom happens.

We, at the House of David Fellowship, will attempt to help fill this void. We hope to finish our first assignment in February. We will publish the results on our Blog for public consumption and debate.

What About Scripture: Colossians 2:14, 16-17

Col. 2: 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days:

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
